SOLDIERS OF VIRGINIA.

Nobile est Fortes Honorare.

Not they and not their snow white fame Have need of tribute we can yield, Splendid and bright, untouched of blame, Bless their gl'ry's spotless shield.

Through all the unforgetful years Virginia need not give her sons Homage of trailing arms, of tears, Of tender flowers and steadfast broods.

The benefits of land and love To us who pay them fall instead Since to the world hereby we prove That we are worthy of our dead.

The hero-worship that of old Rome gave to those who bravely died Strong in our hearts today we hold The Roman truth, the Roman pride.

From her high place's mighty scarp Virginia looks with level gaze Across the instant tumult sharp To splendor of the future days.

For, faithful to their soldier-lead, Her loyal people still she sees Blazing strong, true, unconquered To new and noble destinies.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Miss Mary Klump, aged 38 years, who had been employed as a checker in the kitchen of the Hotel Rittenbue in Philadelphia for the past two years and who is said to have wealthy relatives in Washington, D. C., and John McGovern, a married man, who was formerly employed as a pantryman at the same hotel, were found dying late yesterday afternoon in a furnished room, where they had gone Tuesday night.

The woman had two bullet wounds in her breast and died shortly after her removal to a hospital. The man had been shot three times in the chest, and the physicians say he cannot recover.

The couple were lying face to face on the bed with an empty revolver between them when other occupants of the house rushed to the room attracted by the sound of five pistol shots. The police are puzzled to know who did the shooting. There were powder marks on the man's body, but there was none on the woman's. In a statement made during a period of consciousness at the hospital, according to the police, McGovern said the woman had shot him because he was a married man.

McGovern lived with his wife in Philadelphia. He went to the latter city from Buffalo about three months ago and said that he originally came from Boston. The woman bore a good reputation. Both at the hotel where she was employed and at her boarding-house it was stated that she appeared quiet and refined and was not known to have men friends.

Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds to which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

THE PRIEST WHO ELOPED.

Rev. Alphonse N. Consolazio, a Catholic priest, of the Trent diocese, told yesterday in Atlantic City the story of his elopement with 16-year-old Katherine Johann, of Trenton.

"It is true that I am married," he said. "Miss Johann and I came here last Monday, and the ceremony was performed by a magistrate. There are many reasons why I took the law into my own hands. The principal one is that I felt I was treated unfairly by Bishop McFaul, of Trenton.

"I came to this country about two years ago to investigate the conditions among Italian Catholics. I was sent here from Rome and reported to Bishop McFaul. I heard rumors recently that Bishop McFaul was making inquiry regarding my actions. The bishop told me that he had proof that stories about me were true, but he refused to produce his evidence, and I went to see the delegate.

"Bishop McFaul was evidently furious that I had gone over his head. I decided to go back to Italy. I went to him and asked for my credentials. He said I could have them if I would sign a paper which he showed me. After I had read the document I refused. I felt that the contents would place me in a wrong light with my superiors. The signing of it was the only condition, he told me, under which he would give me a reference. I then decided to leave the diocese, and at once left Trenton.

The romance had its inception two years ago, while Miss Johann was traveling with her parents in Naples, Italy. The young priest, who by his marriage has excommunicated himself, had not been ordained at that time, but was a student in the University of Naples. It was a case of love at first sight.

Instant Relief For Sore Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

Police men all over the world use TIZ. Police men stand on their feet all day and know what sore, tender, swollen feet really mean. They use TIZ because TIZ cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. Read what this policeman has to say: "I was surprised and delighted with TIZ for tender feet. I hardly know how to thank you enough for it. It's superior to powders or plasters. I can keep my feet in perfect condition. Believe in my earnest gratitude for TIZ. I am a policeman and keep on my feet all day."—Emory Harrell, Austin, Texas.

You never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold. TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudates which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet. You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and calluses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists 25 cents per box or direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

der of Jane Adams on the Million Dollar Pier at Atlantic City last February, was acquitted last night at May's Landing, N. J.

The jury was out a little more than five hours. Seyler fairly leaped at his lawyers when he realized that he was again a free man.

After greeting his counsel he walked over to the jury men and shook hands with each of them at the same time warmly expressing his thanks.

The crowd in the courtroom pressed forward and the acquitted man held an impromptu reception.

After the trial was over, Orvis Seyler, William's brother, who had been held as a witness, was formally discharged and the two brothers immediately left the courtroom and took a train for Atlantic City.

It was reported about the courtroom that the jury considered only two verdicts, first-degree murder and acquittal. J. and T. Cousin's Fine Lustral Colt and Black Russia Lustral Pumps and Oxfords. Welded and Turn's price $5.00; our price $4.00. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.
